History of Popes

#131 – Pope Leo VII - Pope from June 23, 964 – death, March 1, 965. Leo, a layman, worked as a notary in the Church's civil service before becoming pope. His assistance to the emperor Otto I in the negotiations between German and papal courts contributed to him being chosen to succeed John XII after Otto deposed John for a laundry list of unsavory deeds. Although not much is known about his time in office, it's believed that Leo reigned over a time of relative peace. He is best known for being in the center of a contentious struggle over who was the rightful pope. John XII refused to comply with his deposition, and thus remained the rightful pope until his death in 964. Leo was put in office in December of 963, so he technically was an antipope during the time John was imprisoned and up until John stormed back to Rome and forcibly removed him. The pope soon died, which allowed Leo to take the Chair rightfully this time. Supporters of John instead went against canonical law and picked Benedict V to be pope. Upon hearing this, Otto, returned to Rome and came to Leo's aid. Since history considers Leo a legitimate pope, it's widely thought that Benedict cooperated with his removal and demotion. This particular period of papal uncertainty, where both Leo and Benedict claimed the papal throne illegally at first, marks the only time in Church history where two consecutive antipopes actually became legitimate successors of St. Peter immediately after having usurped their predecessor.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

Ever notice how attached we get to stuff? We have it everywhere & oftentimes have forgotten just exactly what we have. How much of your stuff do you actually need? How much could be given to those in need? In our Gospel we see Jesus traveling to Jerusalem. He didn't travel with suitcases, he didn't even have a base camp or place to keep his belongings – he didn't have or need many belongings. Now we know He lived in a very different time so we can't compare fairly, but the lesson is important. Jesus, the Son of God had nowhere to rest his head and was rejected by people who could help him. Take some time this week to think about those among us who have very little and whose lives are a daily struggle. How can you use your stewardship of time, talent and treasure to help ease their burden? What can you do to help them feel valued?

STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Kenmore Community Meal - The partnership between I.C. & Park United Methodist has expanded to include a free community meal which will be served in Waldeisen Hall on the last Tuesday of the month from 5 – 6:30 pm. Ways to help: help out in the kitchen, be a greeter or a server and help keep costs down by donating requested items in the basket at the front entrance of the church. Requested items: Italian or ranch salad dressing, canned chicken, cream of chicken or mushroom soup, chicken and beef broth or stock, boxes of jello or pudding, cake mixes, refried beans, flour tortillas, enchilada sauce, corkscrew and other pasta, coffee, powdered creamer, koolaid and lemonade mixes. This new ministry can make a huge impact for Christ in our neighborhood so call the rectory to help and drop donated items in the basket. IC Pride – Catch It!

Adopt-A-Plot – Looking good! We need someone to adopt 2 of the 4 planters in front of the church. Please call the rectory to share your stewardship.

Calendar Time - Once again, we ask all ministries & groups to submit the dates, times & hall information for upcoming events from July 2019 – June 2020.

Parish Library – Our 5 Year Plan calls for greater use of our library in Hitch Hall. Stop by during the week, before or after Mass or see books available for check-out on the tables by the main doors.

Step Up! Our 5-Year Plan calls for us to “Personally invite fallen away or inactive Catholics to participate in the life of the parish.” Fr. Mike has instituted the Step Up! program and is asking parishioners to step up to be part of a team of missionary disciples who will go in teams to visit our brothers & sisters who have become inactive Catholics. Training will be provided & practice sessions will be offered before our teams go out. Please call the rectory to sign-up. Flyers may be found at the doors of the church.
