Stewardship of Treasure: If you look at the Collection Report, you'll see that we have fallen behind on our YTD goal. Your parish envelopes are a sign of your willingness to practice the Stewardship of Treasure assuring the continued ministry of our parish to the people of Kenmore. If you visit another parish or are not yet coming to Mass, please send in or drop off your envelopes. Thank you.

Mass Change - Wednesday Masses remain suspended for the foreseeable future with the exception of the last Wednesday of each month when we will celebrate the Anointing of the Sick at the 5:30 pm Mass.

Do you know of someone who has been away from the Church or is shut-in and can't get to Mass? Please let us know so we can reach out to connect with them.

100th Anniversary Committee Events

- Parish Picnic - Sunday, June 26th. If you didn't get a copy of the picnic flyer last week, please pick one up at the doors of the church. All RSVPs with payment must be received by June 23rd. If you know anyone interested in joining the Catholic Church – invite them! Help is needed that Sunday morning, June 26th at 10 am to set up tents, tables & chairs. Please call the rectory to sign-up to help. Help will also be needed to take them down at 4 pm. Together we'll have a wonderful time as a family of faith. I.C. Spirit – catch it!
- July 4 – Mass at 9:30 am. Continental breakfast in Hitch Hall following Mass.
- July 23 – This is a major event to help raise funds for Fr. Mike's retirement reception. Information coming very soon – it will be a great event.
- Rubber Ducks Game – July 29th.
- August 14 – Fr. Mike's retirement reception at Guy's Party Center.

We are once again looking for a part-time parish secretary. It is crucial that we fill this position so if you or someone you know is interested, please pick up a copy of the job description at the church doors and send in your resume or share the job description with someone else.

There will be a blessing over all fathers at all Masses next weekend.

History of Popes

#234 – Gregory XV - Pope from Feb. 9, 1621 – death, July 8, 1623. Born January 9, 1554, Alessandro Ludovisi was a native of Bologna and the third of seven children. He was educated by the Jesuits at both the Roman College and at the University of Bologna. He was a canon lawyer & eventually would serve as Auditor of the Roman Rota. He was appointed Archbishop of Bologna in 1612 by Pope Paul V & became a cardinal four years later. Taking the name Gregory XV, he assumed the papacy on February 9, 1621. Gregory's ill health made him realize he needed an energetic presence to carry out his wishes as pope, so he made his nephew, Ludovico, a cardinal and his personal advisor. He also elevated his brother, Orazio, to lead the papal armies. He helped reclaim a key German territory for Catholicism and was gifted with a library of nearly 4,000 manuscripts by its new ruler. He also was able to maintain peace when a war between Spain and France seemed apparent, following an unfortunate massacre of Protestants in 1620. Gregory published the last papal bull written on witchcraft, Omnipotentis Dei ("Almighty God..."), reserving the death penalty only to those who had made a pact with the devil and committed murder on his behalf. Gregory XV is best known for two moves that have aided the Church ever since. The first was a tightening of papal conclave rules, which aimed to avoid intervention by secular powers. With the bulls Aeterni Patris Filius ("Son of the Eternal Father...") and Decret Romanum ("A Roman...") Gregory laid down only three possible methods of electing a pope – acclamation, secret scrutiny (which every papal election since 1623 has been), and reference to a committee. Given how far the Church had spread in the past two centuries, Gregory created the Congregation for the Propagation of the Faith, the Church's missionary arm, to ensure a united front in missionary work. He canonized St. Ignatius Loyola, St. Francis Xavier, St. Philip Neri, and St. Teresa of Avila. He also beatified the likes of Bl. Ambrose Sansedoni of Siena, St. Albert the Great (Thomas Aquinas' mentor), St. Aloysius Gonzaga, St. Francis Borgia, and St. Peter of Alcantara, O.F.M.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

This week we observe the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity; God Father, Son and Holy Spirit. The example of complete self-giving love we receive from the Trinity should guide our interactions with one another for we have been baptized into one Body. St. Paul reminds us that the love of God has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit. How do we share that love with others? How do we use our time, talent and treasure to ensure that those who do not know God come to know God's love & truth? Let us pray for greater understanding and learn to give of ourselves to others as we have been taught to do by the Holy Trinity.

STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

In His Name: Toiletries for the homeless served by the Peter Maurin Center. Please place donations in the basket by the main doors of the church. Thank you.

CareCards - Please keep them coming! To participate, purchase cards of encouragement, add a short note and sign your name. Put the cards into the envelope (do not seal) & place into the basket. Please do not drop off cards from charitable/religious organizations.

Subway Cards – We've had quite a few people come to the rectory door in need of food & our card supply is getting low. We'd love to get more $5 & $10 cards so that we can continue to feed the hungry. Drop donations in the collection basket or at the rectory. Thank you.

Adopt-A-Plot – We really need someone, a family or a group of friends to adopt the plots in front of the school and Waldeisen Hall. Let's help our parish get another beautification award from the city!

Secretary to Pastoral Council – We are in need of a person to share stewardship as Secretary to Pastoral Council. This person would be required to attend all Council meetings, take minutes, type them up and distribute them to council members via email. Council meets on the 4th Tuesday of the month: Aug – Oct & Jan – May at 7 pm in Hitch Hall. This is a non-voting position. Please call the rectory for info and to apply.

EMHCs - We need Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to take Communion to our shut-ins on the first Friday of each month. Call the rectory for more info.

The Kenmore Free Store - Store hours are Tuesdays from 4 - 7 pm & Saturdays from 9 am - noon. Sanitizer will be available. Donations may be placed in the red cart in front of the school during store hours only.

Masses - If you'd like to schedule a Mass, please call the rectory; the stipend is $10. The next available dates are: Weekdays: June 20, 24, 27, July 1, 8, 11; Saturdays: July 2, 9, 16, 23, 30, 5:30 pm; Sundays, July 3, 10, 17, 24, 31 - 8:30 am; July 17, 24, 31 - 11 am.

Parish Leadership Transition – On Tues., May 31st, Fr. Dan Schlegel, Secretary & Vicar for Clergy and Religious, Diocese of Cleveland, addressed parishioners at a Town Hall Meeting regarding the future of the parish. As you know, Fr. Mike retired on June 7th, his 75th birthday; 75 is the age for mandatory retirement for priests in our diocese. Bishop Malesic has re-established a leadership position called Parish Life Coordinator and appointed Pastoral Associate, Melissa Keegan as Parish Life Coordinator of I.C. effective June 7, 2022. Melissa has been in ministry in the parish for 39 years and was certified as a Lay Ecclesial Minister for the Diocese of Cleveland by the late Bishop Anthony Pilla in 2000. As the PLC, she will oversee all daily operations of the parish. Not being a priest, she can not, of course, celebrate Mass and hear Confessions. Fr. Mike has graciously agreed to serve as the parish Sacramental Priest and will continue to celebrate Mass and hear Confessions at I.C. as he has been doing for the last 24 years. Fr. Sam will remain at the rectory and will also continue to provide Mass help; Mass times will remain the same as will the time for Confessions. As we go through this transition together, let us keep one another in prayer and continue to witness to our Catholic faith through our stewardship and our worship.
