History of Popes

#236 – Innocent X - Pope from Sept. 15, 1644 – death, Jan. 7, 1655. Giambattista Pamphili's family was from Gubbio, but moved to Rome during Innocent VIII's papacy. Giambattista studied canon law in Rome and was soon made Auditor of the Roman Rota, the Church's highest court, by Clement VIII. He was sent to France and Spain by Urban VIII, became the papal nuncio to Madrid, and was elevated to cardinal in 1626. Giambattista was highly involved in the Council of Trent and the Inquisition. The conclave which elected him pope struggled to reach a conclusion as the French cardinals didn't want a Spanish sympathizer, nor did the Spanish want a Frenchman. Taking the name Innocent X, he began his papacy by going after the money-grabbing family of Urban VIII who had used their influence to pad their pockets with public funds. Innocent was able to restore good relations with Venice which had become strained under Urban VIII by helping ward off the Turks. Venice thanked Innocent by allowing its bishops to be named by the pontiff, even though the city had a history of resisting outside influence. Innocent is best known for responding to the Jansenist heresy with his bull, Cum occasione ("With an opportunity..."). Urban VIII had begun fighting the movement, which claimed that God's grace was irresistible by nature and that man didn't actually possess free will, with a bull of his own, but Innocent's was a bit more specific. It condemned five core propositions in Jansenism's source document, the Augustinus, and sparked intense debate which lasted several decades. It's thought that Guido Reni, in his famous painting of St. Michael the Archangel crushing the head of Satan, used the future pope as the model for his depiction of the devil as Reni thought Innocent had been spreading rumors about him while still a cardinal. What else was going on in the world at the time? In the year 1648, George Fox founded his Religious Society of Friends in England, better known as the Quakers

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

Jesus' words in our Gospel seem harsh and uncaring at first, but we need to understand what stewardship and discipleship are & what they require. Jesus is returning to Jerusalem to fulfill His Father's will & the mission He was given. Those He called as His disciples were held to a high standard – that of eternal life and on the way, His followers were to share the Good News and bring others to Jesus. As His disciples now, by virtue of Baptism, we're called to the same mission & high standard. Did His disciples know what was in store for them – no. Do we – no, but they were faithful and we must be as well. We do this by sharing our time, talent and treasure on behalf of the Gospel, by serving through love and loving our neighbors as ourselves. We have many opportunities to do this at IC but we must also be right with God so that our motivation is pure. Let us offer God right worship and be true to our Catholic faith and Tradition, so that we can be effective disciples and stewards.

STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Secretary to Pastoral Council – We are in need of a person to share stewardship as Secretary to Pastoral Council. This person would be required to attend all Council meetings, take minutes, type them up and distribute them to council members via email. Council meets on the 4th Tuesday of the month: Aug – Oct & Jan – May at 7 pm in Hitch Hall. This is a non-voting position. Please call the rectory for info and to apply.

CareCards - Please keep them coming! To participate, purchase cards of encouragement, add a short note and sign your name. Put the cards into the envelope (do not seal) & place into the basket. Please do not drop off cards from charitable/religious organizations.

In His Name: Toiletries for the homeless served by the Peter Maurin Center. Please place donations in the basket by the main doors of the church. Thank you.

EMHCs - We need Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion to take Communion to our shut-ins on the first Friday of each month. Call the rectory for more info.

Subway Cards – We are out! We'd love to get more $5 & $10 cards so that we can continue to feed the hungry. Drop donations in the collection basket or at the rectory. Thank you.

Adopt-A-Plot – Things are taking shape & looking good. We really need someone, a family or a group of friends to adopt the plot on the field side of the church. Let's help our parish get another beautification award from the city!

We are once again looking for a part-time parish secretary. It is crucial that we fill this position so if you or someone you know is interested, please pick up a copy of the job description at the church doors and send in your resume or share the job description with someone else.

The Kenmore Free Store - Store hours are Tuesdays from 4 - 7 pm & Saturdays from 9 am - noon. Sanitizer will be available. Donations may be placed in the red cart in front of the school during store hours only.

Masses - If you'd like to schedule a Mass, please call the rectory; the stipend is $10. The next available dates are: Saturdays: July 9, 23, 30, 5:30 pm; Sundays, July 10, 24, 31, Aug 7, 14, 21, 28 - 8:30 am; July 24, 31 - 11 am; Weekdays: July 8, 11, 18, 22, 25, 29.

Parish Leadership Transition – Fr. Mike, having reached mandatory retirement age, has retired & Bishop Malesic has appointed Melissa Keegan as Parish Life Coordinator, effective June 7, 2022. Fr. Mike will serve as our Sacramental Priest and will continue to celebrate Mass, hear Confessions, etc. at I.C. As we go through this transition together, let us keep one another in prayer.
