History of Popes

#239 –Pope Clement X - Pope from April 29, 1670 – death, July 22, 1676. Emiliero Altieri, born July 13, 1590 into one of the most ancient noble Roman families, lived his life in service to the Church. After receiving his doctorate in canon law, Emiliero was sent to Poland as an auditor for its papal nuncio there. Urban VIII assigned him to Ravenna from 1623-1644, after which Emiliero was named nuncio of Naples by Innocent X for 11 years. Alexander VII sent Emiliero back to Poland for 12 years, then Clement IX called him to Rome to serve in his court. On the eve of his death, the pope appointed Emiliero a cardinal, prophetically saying “You will be our successor.” A long conclave rife with bickering ended just as Clement IX had predicted. Emiliero initially refused and required a good amount of persuading before finally accepting his new office, taking the name Clement X after his friend and predecessor. Clement fought to keep peace in Europe his entire papacy against the ambitious King Louis XIV of France. He established the first-ever North American diocese, the See of Quebec, in 1674. He, like his last several predecessors, was well-known for the saints whom he canonized, including St. Cajetan, St. Francis Borgia, St. Louis Bertrand, and St. Rose of Lima. He also beatified the illustrious Pope St. Pius V, the great mystic St. John of the Cross, and the Dutch Martyrs of Gorkum, 19 priests and religious who had been put to death by Calvinists in Holland in 1572. Clement X tops the list of oldest popes at the time of his election, having been 79 years and 290 days old. Clement X died at the age of 86 on July 22, 1676, having been the oldest pope at death up to that point in history.

STEWARDSHIP THOUGHTS

Our lives are busy & our lives are complicated. We are tired, anxious, overwhelmed, worried – just like Martha in our Gospel. Everything seems to fall on her while her sister sits at the feet of Jesus seemingly oblivious to the work needed and to her sister’s increasing frustration. We’ve all experienced a scene like this, but as much as we are like Martha, we need to strive to be more like Mary for it is in Jesus that we find peace, relief, hope and refreshment. As stewards busy about Talent and Treasure, let’s not ignore Time. How do we use our time? Do we have time to pray, reflect, read Scripture, sit at the feet of Jesus? That quality Time with the Lord will make the rest of our Time more meaningful and purposeful. We will share our Talent and our Treasure with more joy and greater impact. May our Martha Time be fed and blessed by our Mary Time.

STEWARDSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Subway Cards – We are asking for $10 cards. There is a growing population of homeless in the area and we want to serve as many as possible.

Secretary to Pastoral Council – We are looking for someone to share stewardship in this position: attend meetings once a month from Aug – Oct and Jan – May on the 4th Tuesday of the month, take minutes, type them up & send them out by email to council members. This is a non-paid, non-voting position. Please call the rectory for information and to apply.

In His Name: Toiletries for the homeless served by the Peter Maurin Center. Please place donations in the basket by the main doors of the church. Thank you.

EMHC – Can you give us a couple hours once a month (First Friday) to take the Eucharist to our shut-ins? Training will be provided. Please call the rectory for information.

CareCards - Please keep them coming! To participate, purchase cards of encouragement, add a short note and sign your name. Put the cards into the envelope (do not seal) & place into the basket. Please do not drop off cards from charitable/religious organizations.

Bingo – Are you friendly? Are you good with numbers? Are you calm in the midst of a lot going on? Bingo is looking for you! We have lots of different jobs: calling Bingo, selling Instant Bingo, learning the office from our amazing Bingo Manager, Lorie Papp – sit down, stand up, move around. We need more people to serve our clientele and to rotate workers. Bingo income is critical to our parish finances so come help, be part of a team, meet new people and help your parish.

Adopt-A-Plot - The property is looking great! Want to help? Call the rectory.

The Kenmore Free Store - Store hours are Tuesdays from 4 - 7 pm & Saturdays from 9 am - noon. Sanitizer will be available. Donations may be placed in the red cart in front of the school during store hours only.
